- a. Before matches, players can practice only on the machine assigned for their match. Each player can practice up to 6 darts before commencing the match.

6.2 Player Change

- a. A player presses the change button (where applicable) after his/her turn and goes behind the throw line. ("Player Change")
- b. No throwing, including rethrow, is acceptable during the change process. ("REMOVE DARTS" appears on the machine screen. Even if a dart is thrown during this time, points cannot be earned.

7 Order of Play

The tournament organiser shall decide the rule for the order of play in the tournaments.

7.1 Loser throws first rule

- a. The winner of the cork throws first in the 1st LEG.
- b. The loser of the previous LEG throws first from the 2nd LEG and onwards.
- c. If the final LEG is a CHOICE, then the cork is performed again. The winner of the cork may either choose to throw first or choose the type of game.

7.2 Alternate start rule

- a. The winner of the cork throws first in the 1st LEG.
- b. Players throw first starts alternately from the 2nd LEG onwards regardless of the game results.
- c. If the final leg is a Choice, players will throw for the Cork again. The winner of the cork may either choose to throw first or choose the type of game.

8 Game Rules

8.1 01 Game General Rules

- a. The word "01 Game" refers to "301", "501", "701", "901", "1101" or "1501".
- b. Unless a separate rule is specified by each tournament, a "15-Round" round limit rule applies to "301", "501", and "701" while a "20-Round" limit to "901", "1101", and "1501".
- c. The first player who reduces the score from a starting point to exactly zero wins the game.
- d. If neither player finishes the game in the 01 Game, regardless of the remaining scores, the cork shall be performed and the player who throws closest to the center of the BULL wins. The same order of throw shall be used for the cork.
- e. Both Inner-Bull and Outer-Bull count as 50 points for full bull rule 50/50; while Inner-Bull count as 50 points and Outer-Bull count as 25 points for split bull rule 25/50.
- f. IN OPTION (Open In / Double In / Master In) or OUT OPTION (Open Out/ Master Out) will be set according to each tournament's game format.

8.2 CRICKET Game General Rules

- a. Unless specifically stated, the word "CRICKET Game" means "STANDARD CRICKET".
- b. Unless a separate rule is specified by each tournament, a "15-Round" round limit rule applies to all CRICKET Games.
- c. Target numbers from 15 to 20 and the BULL are used for the game. Each target requires 3 MARKS to be closed and a player who closes the target first can score from that number by hitting it again.
- d. Hits on the triple pie are counted as 3 marks, double pie as 2 marks and single pie as 1 mark. Hits on outer bull are counted as 1 mark, inner (black) bull as 2 marks.
- e. Closing the same target that is already closed by the opponent makes that number unavailable for further scoring.
- f. The player who closes all target numbers and has the higher points wins the game.
- g. If neither player closes all the target numbers, the one with the higher score wins the game.
- h. If the score is tied, the cork shall be performed and the player who throws closest to the center of the BULL wins. The same order of throw shall be used for the cork.

8.3 COUNT-UP Game General Rules

- a. The number of rounds of this game is limited to 8 Rounds.
- b. Both Inner-Bull and Outer-Bull count as 50 points.
- c. The player with the higher (highest) points at the end of 8th Round wins the game.
- d. If the score is tied, the cork shall be performed and the player who throws closest to the center of the BULL wins. The same order of throw shall be used for the cork.

9 Cork

- a. Each player throws a dart at the Bull. The one who throws closest to the center of the Bull wins the cork.
- b. Unless otherwise specified, the throwing order of the cork shall be determined by the official machine coin-toss function.
- c. If the cork winner cannot be determined after the first throw by both players, each player shall throw the second dart in the reversed order of throw.
- d. A player may re-throw a dart if the dart thrown bounces off or falls out of the dartboard.
- e. All darts thrown shall not be removed from the dartboard until the cork winner is determined.
- f. The dart thrown by the former thrower may be removed from the dartboard before the next person throws his/her dart only if it is in the center of the Bull.
- g. If a team consists of 2 or more players, one player from each team playing the match shall be designated for the cork.
- h. Changing the thrower during the corking is not permitted.
- i. If the second player's throw causes the dart of the first player to fall out, the first player can re-do his/her cork. If both first and second players' darts fall out, the CORK must be restarted.

10 Machine Detection Error (showing wrong score)

- a. The segment where a dart stick establishes the score for that dart thrown. If machine displays a different score, a Marshal should be called to witness "Reverse-a-Round" feature to edit to the correct score.
- b. If both players agree to perform "Reverse-A-Round" without a Marshal, the game can proceed, and any appeals will not be accepted.
- c. If the dart sticks but the machine does not record the score, player must immediately press the dart into the segment for the machine to register the score.
- d. If player continues to throw 2nd/3rd dart without pressing the dart into the segment to register score, should the dart fall to the floor, that dart result will be registered as "OUT".
No Re-throw is allowed.
- e. Please be aware that in case of incorrect scoring, if darts on the board are removed, the score cannot be corrected.

11 Machine Malfunction and Power Outage

- a. In case the game needs to be suspended and re-started due to issues such as machine malfunction or power outage, tournament staff restores the game status upon consent from both players.
- b. If the game is not restorable, that LEG will be played again from the beginning of the leg that was in progress.

12 Tournament Format

12.1 Single Elimination

- a. The draws for single elimination tournaments are made according to the Organiser.
- b. No changes will be made to the tournament chart, even if a player (or players) withdraws from the tournament after completing their tournament entry the day before or on the day of the event. It will be processed as a bye for the opponent player(s).

12.2 Round-Robin

- a. Allocation of players to different groups (Block) and a cap of maximum players for each group in round-robin tournaments and the number of players progressing are determined by Organiser.
- b. Each Group's ranking is determined as per the rules provided below.
 - (1) The number of matches won
 - (2) The number of LEGs won
 - (3) The number of LEGs lost
 - (4) Direct confrontation of each team (head-to-head)
- c. In case of a tie with three or more teams after the consideration of above 1 to 4, COUNT-UP game shall be played among players with tied placing until the tie is broken, and the winner(s) will advance to the final.

13 Walkover

- a. When a game is up and the opponent is missing, the player present should raise a request to the Marshal in charge of the area, to page for the missing player.
- b. Control will make 3 paging within 5 minutes for the missing player before a Walkover is announced.
 - o 1st Call – 3 min to turn up.
 - o 2nd Call – 2 min to turn up.
 - o Last Call – 1 min to turn up.
- c. If the missing player is still missing after the last call, an official walkover will be announced and a win of 2-0 (3 Leg Medley) or 3-0 (5 Leg Medley) is awarded to the player who is present for the match

- d. For doubles / trios or more games, all playing members of the team must be present to claim the walkover

14 Authority of Marshal

Marshals have full authority to enforce the game's rules and regulations in connection with the matches. Players must promptly and immediately follow the directions of the marshal.

15 Offences and Disciplinary Issues

Players must adhere strictly to the rules and regulations of the tournament. Failing to abide will be subject to penalties.

15.1 Abandoning games

Abandoning matches or leaving the venue without any notification after the tournament begins disrupts the tournament operations.

Penalty: Player will be served with a warning; repeated offenses will result in suspension from tournaments by the organiser for up to twelve (12) months.

15.2 Use of abusive language during matches

The use of offensive, vulgar, derogatory, or abusive language towards other players, officials, or spectators is strictly prohibited.

Penalty: First offense will result in a warning; subsequent offenses may lead to disqualification from the tournament, forfeiture of any prizes won and/or a potential ban from future tournaments for up to six (6) months.

15.3 Barracking/ Intentional disturbance

A player or their associated supporters must not behave in such a manner as to compromise the ability of the opponent to concentrate on the match during their throw, e.g. Barracking.

Such players may be given warnings or disqualified from the event if they persist in such behaviour. Supporters or audience who commit such acts intentionally, will be asked to leave the event venue

15.4 Acts of Violence

Physical aggression or threatening behaviour towards any player, official, marshal or spectator is strictly forbidden.

Penalty: Immediate disqualification from the tournament, PRO Card certification revoked, forfeiture of any prizes won and a suspension from all future events by organiser for at least twelve (12) months and up to twenty-four (24) months.

15.5 Impersonation

Playing the tournament games under a false identity or allowing another person to compete on your behalf is considered a serious offense.

Penalty: Both impersonator and actual player will face immediate disqualification, PRO Card certification revoked, forfeiture of any prizes won and a permanent ban from all future tournaments.

15.6 Dishonest and fraudulent play

Engaging in cheating, match-fixing, or any form of dishonest conduct to manipulate the outcome of a match is a severe violation of the tournament's integrity and tarnishes the image of the sports.

Penalty: Such Player may face immediate disqualification, PRO Card certification revocation, forfeiture of any prizes won or a permanent ban from all future tournaments.

16 Attire Regulations
